Thanks Stef,

I'm not sure I understand your comments below.

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Thanks again for giving this thought – on independence day too!

DELIBERATIVE

Kathy -- nothing like thinking a little bit about cooperative federalism on Independence Day.... Attached are a few thoughts for your consideration. Forgive if not fully appropriate to the process -- this is my first blueprint.

A couple of issues that might be worth the group's consideration that are not specifically identified here:

Hi all,

As pat mentioned in his last e-mail, I am sending you a rough draft of the Analytical Blueprint for folks to provide input to. We tried to divvy up the writing by identifying a lead or two for each section, should not take long to craft. Once we have the pieces we will send out a compiled document for discussion on July 16th – our next call. I'd put it on sharepoint but Pat does not have access to that.

Pat and I have filled in, but not refined, language in a few sections as examples of the level of information needed (and this may vary). If you have or we discussed recommendations we can add those to the blueprint.

Please send your comments/sections to us (Pat, Ruth and Myself) by COB July 11th so that we can combine everything into one document and send it COB the 12th so you can review prior to meeting on July 16th. Sorry for the short timeframes, we are trying to get to Dave Ross by the end of July.

I have attached, at the end of the blueprint, the additional list of issues we all identified would ideally be updated in the revised regulation that will not be part of the more in-depth discussion in the blueprint.

Last but not least, please respond to the latest doodle poll for the next meeting after the 16th.
